What is the Pullman Schools Pantry Program?

A supplemental food program to support the health of Lincoln families in need. Hunger negatively impacts the ability to learn. Many circumstances in life can lead families to struggle in accessing enough food. This program is meant to supplement the food available to Lincoln students during weekends and long school breaks. We want to create better learning situations for our students. Healthy, full students are able to focus, resulting in better learning.

Who is the program for?

Any student enrolled at Lincoln Middle School. To join the program, fill out the Pullman Schools Pantry registration form and return it to the front office of Lincoln Middle School.

When is Pullman Schools Pantry available?

During the school year. Food packs will be distributed once per week, before school dismissal on the last day of the school week.

What about confidentiality?

We understand confidentiality is a concern. All registration information will be kept in strict privacy. Our goal is to distribute food in a manner so that the distribution of food is kept confidential. Those enrolled in the program will discreetly receive a bag of food on distribution days.
